

1 as the Controller.

2 Really, what I am saying is, we are just 3 changing, or we are not changing pronunciation since they 4 are both pronounced identically. We are just taking out an 5 archaic spelling of and putting in a modern spelling. It 6 becomes quite confusing because, for quite a few people, in 7 fact, the office holder is the one who mispronounces this 8 more than anyone else, but it is correctly pronounced, 9 Controller, and in writing a modern Constitution, we should 10 have modern language.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

12 DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, I would have to 13 defer to some of the experts on this Convention as to 14 whether Comptroller or Controller is the more common term
15 today. It just seems to me, as long as the person Comptroller 16 is spelled, C-o-m-p-t-r-o-l-l-e-r, I don't see particularly 17 any need for changing it to a different spelling, unless it 18 has become an archaic spelling. I will defer to some of 19 the CPA's in this room.

20 Delegate Finch, you are a CPA.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gill has the floor.
